Details

SET YOUR DATE

✓ Select a Tuesday or Thursday date several weeks in advance. Experience shows that events planned for Monday

Weekdays garner the best attendance and enable officials, dignitaries or Ambassadors to attend. In general, events between 9:00 a.m. and 3:00 p.m. often receive the most media coverage.

✓ Check for schedule conflicts with other events - i.e., Chamber of Commerce etc.

✓ If your location is under construction, consult your construction team when setting the date.

INVITATIONS

✓ If planning an outdoor event, choose an alternative date or location in case of inclement weather.

✓ Plan the type of invitation: formal letter, informal letter, postcard, e-mail or flier. Include your logo and name, the type of event, date and time, address and a method for the recipients to RSVP. You may also include your business card and a map, if appropriate.

✓ Consider additional methods of getting the word out, such as signs, marquees, Web sites, newsletters or posters. Mail your invitations two to four weeks before the event, and consider a cut-off date for RSVPs, usually about one week before the event.

✓ Designate a contact person and method of contact to handle incoming questions and track RSVPs as they are returned. You may want to phone or send e-mail reminders a few days before the event.

✓ Your guest list can include many varied individuals, from your family and friends to staff; clients; business associates such as bankers, advisors and other professionals; neighboring businesses; volunteer associations; community leaders; elected officials; and the media.

EMCEE/SPEAKERS (A Board Member would be happy to assist you in this capacity)

✓ Choose an emcee to welcome your guests and introduce any other speakers. He or she may also offer a few remarks, thank appropriate persons and recognize VIPs in attendance who will not be speaking.

✓ If you plan to include guest speakers, contact them early so they have enough time to prepare remarks and tell them how long they will have to speak. This is typically very brief (two to three minutes). Call to confirm their attendance approximately one week prior to the event.

PLAN ACTIVITIES

✓ You may decide to hold a traditional ribbon cutting or groundbreaking ceremony, with one or a few brief speeches.

You may wish to include other activities, such as tours of your facility, exhibits, recognition of dignitaries, music or other entertainment, a raffle or refreshments. You may also want to have brochures available or a handout of frequently asked questions and answers about your business.

✓ If you plan to conduct tours, choose your tour guides in advance, or have a self-guided tour with signs or handouts to direct event attendees.

✓ Provide safety items such as hard hats or goggles if necessary and secure or rope off any unsafe areas.

✓ If you want to include exhibits, consider posters, blueprints, a scale model or a large map of your facility.

✓ Refreshments can be simple or elaborate, and are usually determined by the time of day when your event is held.

YOUR CEREMONY AND PROGRAM

✓ The actual ceremony is usually brief (about 10 to 20 minutes) and should be planned ahead of time with regard to speaker order, the actual ribbon cutting or groundbreaking and any other activities you plan to include.

✓ Ribbon cutting - Decide who will cut the ribbon and notify them in advance. Have the cutter (and any other attendees you desire) stand. They should face the audience with the ribbon between them and the audience.

✓ Groundbreaking - Stage those involved and have a photographer or volunteer ready with a camera. You may want to have the audience do a countdown to the actual cutting or groundbreaking.

MEDIA

✓ The local newspapers and radio stations should be contacted about one month in advance.

✓ After the event, send a photo to local newspapers and also consider posting it on your Web site and in any relevant newsletters.
